The telegram issued by one Smt. Munni Ghanaram was registered as Taken Up W.P.No.15682 of 2004.

It was alleged in the telegram that her husband-Ghanaram, who was running a money lending shop, was called by the Police in connection with the pledge of gold items and thereafter, his whereabouts are not known. Therefore, the telegram was issued requesting this Court to interfere with the matter.

3. A counter has been filed on behalf of the respondents stating that the husband of the petitioner was called for to the Police Station for enquiry on 27-08-2004. During the course of enquiry, the husband of the petitioner denied the purchase of stolen ornaments and as no clues are forthcoming to establish the involvement of the husband of the petitioner, he was let off from the Police Station after one hour and that the husband of the petitioner was moving freely and conducting his business.
